Join C4!

There are many rewarding reasons to join C4. It's a great way to meet fellow colonial coin and currency enthusiasts, especially in your area of interest, allowing you to expand your knowledge and build relationships in the hobby. Belonging to C4 is also a great way to keep up with what's going on in the hobby, such as new discoveries and research.

While most members feel the award-winning C4 Newsletter alone is well worth the annual membership fee, there are many other benefits. C4 membership includes four Newsletters per year, full of new research, articles, show reports, and much more. C4 has a lending library allowing you to borrow a wide variety of research materials. And you will want to attend C4's annual convention at the Winter Whitman Expo in Baltimore, which includes a C4 area on the bourse, an opportunity to meet fellow C4 members, and an evening of educational programs as well as a fully catered member reception on Thursday night.

C4's Focus and Purpose

The Colonial Coin Collectors Club (C4) was founded in 1993 to provide a forum for collectors of numismatic material related to the Early American era. This involves coins, tokens, currency, and medals. The exact time frame encompassed by colonial numismatics is open to debate but is generally accepted to include the complete pre-federal period as well as some issues of the 1790s. The early George Washington coins, tokens and medals are considered colonial items by most, and some of these date to the first half of the nineteenth century.

The club provides a forum for people interested in this period. The aims of the club are:

- To increase the public's knowledge about colonial numismatics through meetings, conventions, publishing books and its newsletter.
- To promote the study of colonial numismatics and to help disseminate this information.
- To cultivate fraternal collector relations.

For these purposes, the club will hold several meetings during the year in conjunction with major numismatic shows. The club has also established a colonial reference library. In addition, the C4 Newsletter is published quarterly.
